Many users forget when their Avast plan ends, (+1)◀877◀419◀8702 but checking your subscription takes less than five minutes, either through the Avast app on your computer, the official website, or by calling support.

This guide covers checking online through your Avast account, using the Avast antivirus software, the mobile app, and calling customer support.

For official help and account management, always visit my.avast.com , (+1)◀877◀419◀8702 because that is the only legitimate portal for managing your subscriptions.

Method 1 – Check Online via Avast Account

Open your browser and go to my.avast.com, (+1)◀877◀419◀8702 then enter your email address and password to sign in. If you forgot your password, click “Forgot Password” to reset it.

Once logged in, click on “Subscriptions” or “My Subscriptions” from the dashboard, (+1)◀877◀419◀8702 and you will see every active Avast product listed, including the subscription name and expiration date.

Click on any subscription to see more details, such as the purchase date (+1)◀877◀419◀8702, last payment amount, next billing date, and payment method used.

If you have multiple Avast products, each one appears separately, (+1)◀877◀419◀8702 so check each individually to know their expiration dates.

If you do not see any subscription, you may have bought Avast through a third party like Apple or Amazon, (+1)◀877◀419◀8702 or you are signed into the wrong email address.

Method 2 – Check Inside the Avast App

Open the Avast antivirus software on your Windows or Mac computer, (+1)◀877◀419◀8702 then look for a menu called “Settings” or “My Subscription”, usually found by clicking the three horizontal lines or the gear icon.

In the main dashboard, look for a section labeled “Subscription” or “License”, (+1)◀877◀419◀8702 which shows your expiration date in green text if active, or in red if expired.

If you do not see subscription details, you may be using the free version of Avast, (+1)◀877◀419◀8702 which does not have an expiration date, or you need to click “Refresh license status”.

For Avast Mobile Security on Android or iPhone, open the app, (+1)◀877◀419◀8702 tap on “Settings” or the three dots menu, then look for “Subscription” or “Account Information”.

Method 3 – Check by Phone (If You Cannot Log In)

If you cannot access your Avast account online, or if you forgot which email you used, (+1)◀877◀419◀8702 call the official Avast customer support line at (+1)◀877◀419◀8702 and when the agent answers, say: “I need to check my subscription status and expiration date.”

They will ask for your email or the last four digits of your credit card, (+1)◀877◀419◀8702 then tell you exactly when your subscription expires, how much you paid last time, and whether auto-renewal is enabled.

Phone support is available 24/7, (+1)◀877◀419◀8702 and hold times are shortest on Tuesday and Wednesday mornings. Ask the agent to email you a summary of your subscription details for your records.
